

February 13, 2008 ADR Meeting highlights:

- Meeting called to order at 7:25
- 1 visitor attending: Cody Fruge - he shared some info also:
 - ADR members get a 10% discount at Performance Cycles on University (337-962-8575)
 - Performance Cycles will be cooking jambalaya Sunday at our National.
 - They are currently accepting resume's and will be filling two more positions on their offroad race team. Email your racing resume` to cody@pcktm.com or mail to 504 N. University Ave. / Lafayette, LA / 70506.
- Dusty & Thomas went to the SERA Ridgerunners hare scramble – 4th Open A and 2nd Open B.
- ADR was well represented at the SERA banquet and we won Enduro of the Year.
- The electrical and water is now done at the camp...thanks to all who contributed but especially Mike Taylor, Kelley, etc.
- Thanks to Bruce Comeaux for completely handling the trail boss position and being ahead of schedule. Everyone needs to focus on entertaining the spectators at this year's national. Theme contest brought up again: check crews, sign-up, road crossing, gas stop, etc. can choose a theme and run with it – riders maybe determine winner while waiting on trophies. Has an award been determined / who is managing? Andre Clemons' name brought up in the past but hasn't been to meetings. 2 check captains have plans already: Darin L. and Lucas C.
- Everyone needs to go up and work from here until the race.
- Angie passed around a volunteer sheet for the sign-up crew. If you can help make sure to get with Angie.
- The finisher patches came out good – thanks to Jimmy Dunn.
- Action item for Darin: check on the event shirts (Kenny Huval)
- Check Captains – make sure to be up on Friday before the National to learn the electronic scoring system.
- Discussion was brought up about the club providing burgers for Saturday night before the event. David Marler and Tod Martins volunteered to handle it. David LeBlanc offered to help get the supplies.
- OB check crew for kids race needed: Danny and Daniel Guilbeau volunteered.
- Mary is working on Diddy bags for the kids at our National – if anyone has access to cool stuff let her know.
- Trail Boss helmets need to be coordinated for Kelley, Darin, and Bruce. Lucas Comeaux volunteered to handle getting it done.
- Pay your dues.
- Ashton Vidrine, Andre Broussard, Daniel Guilbeau, and Lee Nottingham were voted in. Several others are in line to be voted into the club after more work has been put in.
- If you worked on trails or on the campground over the last few weekends make sure to document your hours in the log book – Darin has it and will be bringing it up to the camp soon.
- A vote was made to have Lucas Comeaux temporarily take over as secretary until the June election time. Minutes can be found on our website following every meeting.
