

March 5, 2008 ADR Meeting highlights:

- Meeting called to order at 7:30
- Everyone needs to let the club know if you've had a change in address, phone number, or email address
- Cody Fruge with Performance Cycles decided on filling the last two team slots with the Dunn family and Jade Labiche.
- Kelley and Bruce's trail boss helmets were given out. Darin's is on back order.
- Meeting handed off to trail boss Bruce – we are where we need to be. Make sure you can handle your assigned job, this weekend is the last chance to get shown your spot, next weekend will be busy.
- Lessons learned: next time get wax covered arrows.
- There has been bad weather lately, loop captains go up this weekend to check over everything, look for alternate routes, etc.
- Whoever is planning on staying Mon make sure to help pull down arrows – the goal is to be completely done with arrow-pulling when everyone leaves race weekend.
- The first 2 miles of enduro course still has arrows on other side of trees from last year, Breaux volunteered to pull them down this weekend.
- First wave of burgers Sat. night of event weekend will be at 6:30 PM. Make sure to be hungry enough to eat 2 or 3.
- Everyone spread the word that sign-up will be open Sunday morning from only 7AM to 8:30.
- When people are parking Friday and Saturday make sure they aren't blocking a road.
- Everyone show up with your own orange vest for race weekend...only $3.
- The theme award will be a surprise, make sure to dress up.
- Many ADR members at last race, congrats to all – a few won their class. TSCEC enduro this weekend and SERA hare scramble this weekend
- Looking like Fred Pittman will be able to pull off an enduro in Laurel this year.
- Anyone with nothing to do Sat make sure to help Angie with sign-up or Goat with parking.
- Daniel G. will handle getting the toilet paper, Royce G. will handle fixing the broken toilet

End of meeting at 8:15 PM
